CHC43015 Certificate IV in Ageing Support

CHC43015 Certificate IV in Ageing Support

Course Information

This qualification reflects the role of support workers who complete specialised tasks and functions in aged services; either in residential, home or community based environments. Workers will take responsibility for their own outputs within defined organisation guidelines and maintain quality service delivery through the development, facilitation and review of individualised service planning and delivery. Workers may be required to demonstrate leadership and have limited responsibility for the organisation and the quantity and quality of outputs of others within limited parameters. To achieve this qualification, the candidate must have completed at least 120 hours of vocational placement as detailed in the Assessment Requirements of the units of competency.

Occupational titles may include:

- Residential care worker
- Support worker (Community Services)
- Care supervisor / Team Leader
- Personal care giver
- Personal care worker/assistant
- Residential Care worker
- Care Team Leader

This course is delivered via blended model, predominately offered using electronic based delivery:

- Online delivery
- One day per week workshops with trainer 9:00am-12:00pm – Thursdays, or 9:00am – 12:00pm – Tuesday (Cairns only)
- Vocational placement of at least 120 hours

RPL

All learners will be offered the opportunity for Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) assessment, who consider that they have and can successfully demonstrate that they have acquired through formal, non-formal and informal learning the required knowledge and skills specified in the training package. Learners may apply to have their knowledge and skills assessed via the RPL process and will be required to complete a RPL Application and the relevant RPL Assessment Kit.
