ADVANCED DIPLOMA OF COMMUNITY SECTOR MANAGEMENT

Kickstart your career in community services with our comprehensive dual qualification. Gain essential skills to support individuals and groups through person-centred services. At an advanced level, work independently, report to executive management, and manage service delivery, recruitment, and performance. This program also offers a pathway to tertiary education and prepares you for roles in managing community-based organisations, early childhood education services, or not-for-profits.

Embark on a dynamic career in community services with our dual qualification program.

Our Certificate III in Community Services prepares you to work for a broad range of services that support individuals and groups through the provision of person-centred services. You will learn effective communication strategies and gain cultural awareness and advocacy skills to provide emotional and practical support to clients.

Our Advanced Diploma in Community Sector Management is a comprehensive program designed to equip you with critical skills essential for success in the community services sector, including leadership, problem-solving, critical thinking, risk and financial management. With our tailored skill development, real-world scenarios, and vocational placement, you will gain the confidence to lead and empower positive change in your community.
